

French elegance and sporty casualness. Founded in 1933 by French tennis legend René Lacoste as a manufacturer of sportswear, LACOSTE is today an internationally renowned cult label for lifestyle fashion. Besides sporty and classic collections for women, men and children, the brand with the crocodile includes also an accessories line. LACOSTE is characterized by maximum comfort, premium materials and a high standard of quality. Unique for 90 years.

For our Outlet in Ringsted we are looking for the next possible time a

Assistant Store Manager in full time (m/f/d).

TASKS:

- Expert customer advice and sales
- Deputy and supporting store organization
- Management of the cash register system
- Replenishment and labeling of merchandise
- Stock management and maintenance
- Professional presentation of merchandise in the store and in the display windows

PROFILE:

- Completed training in the textile trade
- First professional experience as a retail manager
- Knowledge of foreign languages desirable

We offer you a varied and challenging activity in a pleasant working atmosphere. In addition, a friendly and international team. Curious? Then we would like to meet you and are looking forward to your application. Please send your application documents by e-mail to Dagmara Jensen:

djensen@lacoste.com