

BY MALENE BIRGER STOREMANAGER (Barselsvikariat)

Job Description

By Malene Birger is looking for a new Store Manager on full time basis as a maternity cover. We are looking for a team member that will deliver high quality in all aspects of the work. This implies that you are authentic towards the customers and colleagues, proud of being an ambassador and constantly strives to increase the knowledge of our brand. In this role you will drive a customer first culture at all levels.

We love working with inspiring people and we are looking to find a By Malene Birger Ambassador that can join the team and bring knowledge and expertise on our journey together.

Key responsibilities

Overall responsible for increasing the turnover in your store and to ensure, maintain and develop Retail excellence through efficient Retail Management.

- Proactive in increasing the Hitrate, IPT and Basket size
- Create positive sales figures, in accordance with the store's sales budget
- Ensure a progressive sales development in the store
- Ensure a low employee turnover

Skills & Requirements

- Retail experience
- Strive for giving the best customer service every day, every time
- Ability to prioritize and multi-task effectively and maintain a positive attitude
- Interested in every customer and visitor at the store
- Good at creating relations and a strong communicator
- Trustworthy with great respect for other people & customers
- Loves working in a team and reaching the goals together.

Start date: Beginning of February 2023 with the possibility of starting before.

If it sounds interesting, please submit your application and resume.

We will interview candidates on-going until the right candidate is found.

We look forward to receiving your application!

About the company

Founded in 2003, By Malene Birger is a brand devoted to the contemporary bohemian – delivering long-lasting investment pieces with a conscious approach. The collections embrace an eclectic vision of Scandinavian minimalism, finding a niche where refined and elevated style meets free-spirited ease. Everything we create must serve an authentic purpose in the curated wardrobe of the By Malene Birger woman.

By Malene Birger is committed to creating a balanced, diverse, and inclusive atmosphere for all employees. We ensure that all people are treated equally and we welcome applications from any qualified candidate irrespective of nationality, age, gender, sexual orientation, or religious beliefs.

We cultivate a creative and easy-going culture at our head office in Copenhagen. We curate monthly playlists, host house breakfasts, and have regular after work events. We work in a flat structure and encourage growth, both within your role and within the company.

<https://emp.jobylon.com/jobs/158259-by-malene-birger-retail-store-manager-barselsvikariat/>